New Albany Resident Indicted for Alleged Securities Fraud, Misrepresentation and Theft

Following a joint investigation by Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine's Bureau of Criminal Investigation and the Ohio Division of Securities, Michael Neubig, 50, was arrested today in New Albany based on an indictment filed Tuesday by a Franklin County grand jury on one count of securities fraud and one count of misrepresentation in the sale of a security, both first-degree felonies, and one count of theft, a third-degree felony.

The indictment alleges that Neubig made numerous false and misleading statements to an Ohio investor about the financial wellbeing of his company, Capture Education, Inc., and the number of students using the company's scheduling platform. The indictment further alleges that Neubig failed to disclose to the victim material information about the financial condition of the company, including cash flow shortages, negative bank balances, customer base, and payroll issues.

This case is being prosecuted by the Office of the Franklin County Prosecutor Ron O'Brien.

"Neubig made misrepresentations to the victim regarding the business investment opportunity, which resulted in this theft and the security violations," O'Brien said.

Before investing, the Division of Securities encourages potential investors to call the division's Investor Protection Hotline at 1-877-683-7841 to ask:

- Is the brokerage firm and salesperson licensed to sell securities in Ohio?
- Have any enforcement actions been taken against them?
- Has the security been properly registered with the Division of Securities?
