Ohio Division of Securities
Issues Summary of Division Orders and Enforcement Actions
March 1–28, 2019

The following administrative order represents official action taken by the Ohio Division of Securities from March 1-28, 2019.

Orders are issued as either a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing (NOH) or as a final order. The NOH details allegations by the Division for violations of the Ohio Securities Act and gives a respondent notice of the right to an administrative hearing. NOHs are public records, but do not represent the final determination in a pending matter.

Final orders contain findings by the Division and represent the final disposition of a matter pending before the Division. All final orders of the Division contain appeal rights to common pleas courts within a specific time.

Details of any Division order can be found at:

Before investing, the Division of Securities encourages potential investors to call the Division's Investor Protection Hotline at 1-877-683-7841 to ask:

- Is the brokerage firm and salesperson licensed to sell securities in Ohio?
- Have any enforcement actions been taken against them?
- Has the security been properly registered with the Division of Securities?
